

Armenian Genocide 98th Commemoration

Montebello CA

Wednesday, April 24, at 1:30 p.m.

The Armenian community of Greater Los Angeles will commemorate the 98th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide on Wednesday, April 24, 2013, at the Armenian Genocide Monument at Bicknell Park in Montebello, California.

The event will start with a moment of silence for the souls of our one and a half million martyrs, followed by a full program that includes remarks and messages from invited political dignitaries, a religious service with the participation of representatives of all religious denominations of the Armenian community, and placement of wreaths at the Monument by participating organizations.

The program starts at 1:30 p.m. and concludes at 3:30 p.m.

The Los Angeles United Armenian Council for the Commemoration of the Armenian Genocide, which consists of more than 50 Armenian religious, political, compatriotic, and other community organizations, is the organizer of this commemorative event. For complete list of the member organizations please visit www.uacla.com.

The United Armenian Council for the Commemoration of the Armenian Genocide invites all community members to attend the commemorative event at the Monument. The United Council also calls upon everyone to take part in great numbers in all other commemorative events on the anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.
